Getting Ready for Kindergarten

Oral Language and Vocabulary

- Talk with your child about daily routines and experiences. • Read books with your child and talk about the story or information.
- Ask your child to follow simple directions; encourage your child to do many things independently, such as getting dressed, setting the table, or preparing a snack.

Concepts About Print

As you read with your child: Follow the words by moving your finger underneath the words.

Letter Identification

- Help your child use letters to spell and write your child's name. At first, your child may use just a few letters. FOR EXAMPLE: Jenny might use the letters JNY.

Word Recognition

- Read books with your child and point out common words. FOR EXAMPLE: the, I, go, a, and, see, like, me, you.
- Place alphabet magnets on your refrigerator. Encourage your child to make simple words. FOR EXAMPLE: cat, dog, mom, dad.

Phonics

- Cut pictures from magazines or draw pictures to help your child make an alphabet book.

How can YOU help your child be successful in math?

- Practice rote counting to 100
- Practice counting to 31 with 1 to 1 correspondence
- Practice writing numbers to 20
- Practice identifying numbers to 20
- Practice identifying shapes and colors
- Practice positional words

More things to practice this summer

- Tying shoes
- Zipping your coat, backpack, lunchbox
- Buttoning and zipping pants
- Bathroom independence

What is Switcheroo?

- During the first week of school, Kindergarten classes will spend a school day with each teacher.
- Each child will meet every Kindergarten teacher and every Kindergarten teacher will get to know every child.
- At the end of the week, permanent classes will be created.

*Switcheroo helps us to create balanced
Kindergarten classes.
That is our goal!*

Questions

A colorful, bubbly graphic that says "Welcome to Kindergarten". The word "Welcome" is on the top line and "Kindergarten" is on the bottom line. Each letter is filled with a different vibrant pattern, including stripes, polka dots, and plaid. To the left of the word "Welcome" is a pink heart with a floral pattern. The entire graphic is set against a white rectangular background.

♥ Welcome to Kindergarten

We can't wait to get to know you!
